Grand Pacific Drive

Drive it, Feel it, Love it

Some roads are just roads. The Grand Pacific Drive? That's an experience. From the moment you roll out of Sydney and trace the coastline via the Royal National Park towards Wollongong, the journey takes on a life of its own. The road twists and turns past golden beaches, winds through emerald forests, and dances along clifftops that tumble dramatically into the sea.

And then, of course, there's the star of the show: the world-famous Sea Cliff Bridge. Suspended between towering sandstone cliffs and the endless sweep of the Pacific Ocean, it's not just a drive, it's a moment that stays with you long after the engine cools.

As you settle into the rhythm, you'll find yourself pulling over just as often as you're pressing the accelerator. Maybe it's the lure of a picnic by the ocean, a lookout that demands a photo, or a seaside village with a café that promises the perfect flat white.

The 140km drive connects you seamlessly to the best of Wollongong, Shellharbour, Kiama and the Shoalhaven. The Grand Pacific Drive isn't about rushing from A to B. It's about slowing down, soaking it all in, and discovering that sometimes the best part of the journey... is the journey itself.

Ready to hit the road?

Quick tip: Park at the southern end of Sea Cliff Bridge (near Coalcliff) and take a walk across the bridge — it's especially stunning during whale season, when you might spot humpbacks migrating along the coast!
